

Professional Development Opportunities for 2012

Teachers looking for focused professional development for formative assessment should attend one of the two Think link workshops...our trainers can differentiate so if you would like to attend both sessions of this for 2 hours of credit you may the second day we will ask you to do some content specific things related to creation of a formative test and even look more closely at common core.

The Legal Seminar is always a great way to gain overall knowledge and competency in the teaching profession. The sessions are very timely and informative and you will see many directors and central office staff in this presentation just to hear the most up to date information regarding educational practice and the law. (6 hours of credit- be sure to sign in and to keep documentation of attendance at all sessions.)

Using Think Link to Guide your Instruction.....3:30- 4:30 Feb. 1 at WCMS in the FFW Lab on 2nd floor of the main building of WCMS.(1 Hour)
