For Immediate Release

March 24, 2020

McMinnville, TN-Today Governor Bill Lee advised that all schools in Tennessee should remain closed through April 24, 2020. In following the Governor’s recommendation Warren County Schools will be closed through April 24, 2020 and will plan to reopen, pending further guidance, on April 27, 2020. This closure will include all schools and extracurricular activities. Director of Schools Bobby Cox stated, “we will continue to follow the advice of the Governor and the health professionals in our state until this situation is resolved.” “We are currently developing and revising online learning opportunities for students and will continue to learn and revise these opportunities as we go through April 24, 2020.” We will also continue to provide meals to our students and will revise this program as needed as we get more information to improve the program on a daily basis.” “We appreciate the hard work and dedication of all our staff, students, and the community as we know this is a difficult time for all of us, but together we will succeed.” Please go to the Warren County Schools website at www.warrenschoools.com for the most updated information.
